

RepliCel has appointed respected leaders in the field of treating tendinopathies to support the clinical development of its RCT-01 autologous cell therapy for the treatment of a variety of chronic tendon injuries.

Dr. Ross G. Davidson, MBChB

RCT-01 Clinical Advisory Board Chairman

Dr. Davidson has facilitated the recovery of numerous high profile professional athletes during his 30+ year career in sports medicine. He is the former Director, Post Grad Programmes Sports Medicine at the University of Auckland and is currently a member of the New Zealand Orthopaedic Association and the Canadian Orthopaedic Association. He is the past president of the National Hockey League Physicians Society, past head physician and orthopaedic consultant for the Vancouver Canucks Hockey Club (NHL), past orthopaedic consultant to the Vancouver Grizzlies Basketball Team (NBA), past orthopaedic consultant to Allan McGavin Sports Medicine Centre, and past orthopaedic consultant to the Canadian Football League Players Association. Dr. Davidson held the position of clinical professor, department of orthopaedics at the University of British Columbia until 2000. Dr. Davidson currently has appointments to the Auckland Surgical Centre and Southern Cross Hospital in New Zealand and is the Director of the Post-Graduate Programme in Sports Medicine at the University of Auckland. Dr. Davidson is a highly regarded and sought-after lecturer having presented more than 60 lectures and presentations and is published in 17 scientific publications on sports-related injuries and treatments.